Dear parents and carers,

Outcome of Consultation with Trade Union Members

Further to my first letter earlier this morning, I am pleased to inform you that all of the teachers at Sydenham Primary School are planning to return to school on Tuesday. I have also listened to the Prime Minister speaking on the BBC Andrew Marr show earlier this morning, and the government's position remains that primary schools will re-open.

So, assuming that there are no further changes, we very much look forward to welcoming the children back on Tuesday morning.

It's wonderful that all our staff are so passionate about maintaining our children's learning, and committed to our school. However, it is absolutely understandable that staff are anxious to keep themselves and their families safe, as well as you and yours. To protect our whole community, please help us by carefully observing social distancing guidelines and following the one-way system at all times whilst on the school site.

Thank you for your patience and understanding in these tricky times. Please be assured that all school staff will, of course, continue to implement appropriate safety measures to help mitigate the risk of transmission and do our utmost to keep everybody safe.

Best wishes,

Juliette Westwood
