Year Four have been rocking around the clock this week in Music!

They also enjoyed listening to different songs.

Everybody had a go at the hand jive.

Lots of children wanted to dance!

Pupils learnt about the history of rock'n' roll.

Remembrance

On Thursday, we celebrated Remembrance Day by holding a two minute silence at 11 o'clock. Year One also painted these beautiful poppy pictures.

Remember Us, Remember Me

War has gone because of the amazing soldiers,
If they had never united the world, it would have fallen apart.
They were brave and trustworthy until the day they went to the next world.
They spent days, months, in the sun and not once had a meltdown.
The soldiers would have smiles on their faces to see they have protected the world,
But sadly their graves stand there, unnoticed as the years go by.
Poppies stand for peace.
They help us remember them.
They say one thing: remember us, remember me.

World War One Letter

Dear Dad,

It was my birthday yesterday but you never came. You said you would be home by Christmas but it's March. You should have been back three months ago. I am thirteen now and I was wondering about joining the army. All my mates have already tried to join and I want to as well.

Please be back soon!

From Samuel

Reception have been inspired by the work of abstract impressionist, Jackson Pollock. They had fun recreating his work using a splatter paint technique.

Look who's reading...

Last week, Rosanna in Mrs Scholes' class and Kirthy in Mrs Harrad and Mrs Cox's class took the class teddy bears home. They both read really regularly at home, and this was their reward!

Both Rosanna and Kirthy's parents were happy to share these lovely photos of the girls enjoying their time with Sorrel and Fern, and I hope that they help to encourage your little ones to read at home too.

Kirthy loves reading and has been talking about Sorrel over the past few weeks. Thank you for sending Sorrel over to spend some reading time with Kirthy. It was an absolute delight and she was over the moon having him around. It is such a lovely gesture by the school to encourage children to read more, Kirthy surely was all pumped up to get the teddy.

I love to read stories to my teddies. My favourite book is Goodnight Moon.

Don't forget to write in your child's reading diary every time they read, so that their teacher can nominate them to take their class teddy home each week!

Celebrating Reading

Congratulations to these children for also completing the half term reading challenge. It's so wonderful that our children are developing a passion for reading books!

Watch this space!

Two of our Year 6 pupils have enjoyed the books that they have been reading so much, that they have written to the authors of those books to tell them just how much they love them...We will let you know if they get a response!

Happy reading, everyone! Miss Challand

Anti-Bullying Day

Kindness is more important today than it has ever been. The isolation of the last year has underlined how little acts of consideration can break down barriers and brighten the lives of the people around us. This is one of the reasons that 'One Kind Word' has been chosen as the theme of Anti-Bullying Week for this year.

Show your support for anti-bullying by coming to school wearing your own choice of clothes including ODD SOCKS on Friday 26th November! Bring 50p and we'll donate it to The Anti Bullying Alliance.

In a world that can sometimes feel like it's filled with negativity, one kind word can provide a moment of hope. It can be a turning point. It can change someone's perspective. It can change their day. It can change the course of a conversation and break the cycle of bullying .

Best of all, one kind word leads to another. Kindness fuels kindness. So from the playground to Parliament, and from our phones to our homes, together, our actions can fire a chain reaction that powers positivity.
